ROBBERS VISIT MANY HOMES IN NEW HAVEN.

When Caught in the House of R. F. Sheppard They Fired Two Shots at James Sheppard and Got Away.

TOOK HIS CLOTHES AND MONEY.

Former Were Found This Morning at

Yonkersville—At Home of I M Hodgkins Mrs. Hodgkins Scared Thieves Away by Shooting—Dr. Gallagher's, Joseph Cochran's, Cooper Patterson's and Other Homes Visited—No Arrests Made.

About two o'clock this morning New Haven was thrown into a high state of excitement by the robbery of Robert F. Sheppard's home on Third street and the attempted robbery of a number of other residences. The excitement had not abated at noon today and the capture of the burglars has been a matter of concern to every place and on every street corner.

James Sheppard, son of R. F. Sheppard, former captain of police on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, arrived home last evening from Morgantown, W. Va., where he is attending Morgantown University. After returning for the night he was awakened about two o'clock by a noise in the house. Rising in his bed he noticed two men standing in the hall by looking in the mirror. The burglars turned on an electric light in the hall. There were a number of revolvers in the house, but during the week the family had been cleaning, and the place had been turned upside down and the place in a drawer Mr. Sheppard watched the men for a short time but when they started on with his clothes he began to panic. The burglars saw him coming and gathering up the suit rushed down stairs with it. At the landing one of them turned and fired twice at him. Mr. Sheppard fled to the floor and the burglars followed him to the door and then to the rear of the house. This morning one of the burglars was arrested and showed that one of them was a 30-caliber Smith & Wesson. The burglars made a hasty exit from the house but at this time all the family and the neighborhood had been aroused and there was much excitement on the part of the women folk.

The burglars carried with them the suit and coat from the pocket $30 in money and a fine gold watch. The clothes were found this morning strewn along the road to Yonkersville. The contents of the pockets were rifled and money and valuables were taken. The burglars effected an entrance into the Sheppard home by passing over one of the pailor windows with a jump. Mr. Sheppard arose from his bed and immediately called County Detective Alex McNeil. Since then there has been a vast deal of search for the robbers and the officers declare that they are positive that they will be placed under arrest. One of the burglars is a $100 bill which figures in the same manner as that which caught the eye of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Poole of Pennsylvania. The money was now being loaned from the Morgantown National Bank. Mr. Sheppard says the two men who robbed him were negroes.

When the search was a large gang of robbers or whether there were only two men in the deal is not known, but a number of other robberies were attempted. At the home of I. M. Hodgkins, Dr. F. R. Gallagher, Joseph Cochran, Cooper Patterson's and other homes were visited. The burglars were seen in the house of Mr. Hodgkins, but they were not caught. The burglars were seen in the house of Dr. Gallagher, but they were not caught. The burglars were seen in the house of Joseph Cochran, but they were not caught. The burglars were seen in the house of Cooper Patterson, but they were not caught.

PRESS AGENT YARNS

What They Say of Plays Coming to the Colonial Theatre. What will probably prove the real dramatic event of the season is the engagement here Thursday, May 3, of Robert Edeson in his new famous comedy drama success, "Strongheart." The play is by William C. DoHille, who collaborated with David Belasco in such well known successes as "The Wife," "The Charity Ball," "Men and Women," etc. According to reports, "Strongheart" is one of the very best plays of several seasons, the press of the cities in which the play has been seen being invariably in favor of the play. Mr. Edeson's popularity alone is great enough to secure a big house, but coming as he does with a conceded success, the engagement should prove a very interesting one.

A Bell Boy. "A Bell Boy," that extremely funny bunch of mule, pretty maidens and lighthearted situations, will open for a one night engagement at the Colonial theatre. This show is recognized by both press and public to be a winner. The title role of the mischievous Bell Boy is in the hands of the clever young comedian, Mr. Johnnie Clevin—to see him once is to see him again. He is ably assisted by little Miss Elia Galvin, the charming singing soprano.

Miss Irene Drew is seen to great advantage as the Widow Lovell, a fly girl. Mr. James Harris as A. J. Hawk has a character part which he handles to the best, and Ned Nelson and James A. Brady as Doogan and Coogan cannot be excelled as comical boomers. Taking all in all the show is a laugh a minute from the time the curtain goes up until it goes down.

PLAY IN ITALIAN

Will Be Given at Gayety Theatre on May 17.

A very unusual and remarkable performance will be given in the old Gayety Theatre on May 17, when the Italian, of Conneltsville, will produce a stirring military drama called "I Due Sergenti, the Two Sergeants." The performance will be given entirely in Italian, with Italian costumes and Italian actors and actresses. The Rev. Father DeSanto, pastor of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, is managing the production and it is conceded that it will be a most interesting performance.

Many tickets have already been sold for the drama, a large number of them being taken by Americans, who are anxious to witness an Italian drama.

ALL MODERN METHODS

The Scottdale M. E. Sunday School Will Inaugurate New Policies

IN SUPERINTENDING STUDIES.

Besides the Scriptures the People Will Be Taught the Policies of the Church—List of Officers for the Year—Grading Soon to Commence

Sp. Clal to The Courier
Scottdale, April 25.—The most modern method in the conducting of Sunday schools will be inaugurated by the Scottdale M. E. Sunday School this year, in the way of promoting the pupils' studies, in their proper classes and in church policy and the Sunday school. There is an enrollment of 275 in the Sunday school which meets every Sunday morning at 9:30 and which has 21 teachers in active service most of the time. The entire general conduct of the school is in the hands of a Sunday School Board.

They have elected the following officers for the year: Dr. James P. Strickler, Superintendent; James L. Reynolds, Assistant Superintendent; James P. Beatty, Secretary; Miss Anna Cupp, Assistant Secretary; Miss Elizabeth L. Henderson, Treasurer; and Miss Anna Cupp, Correspondent. The committee on promotion to date is made up of Dr. P. Strickler, Miss William S. Lesson, Miss Robert E. McKinnis, Miss Mary Sherrick, James L. Reynolds, and J. L. Reynolds. The schools are now graded the following as near possible that of the public schools, the pupils in the same grades of the public schools being in the same grades in the Sunday school. This is not however, all ways the case as some of the higher classes pupils in the day schools are not so high in the Sunday school and vice versa. The size of the pupils and general physical health is a new record as a rule or oftentimes in assigning the pupils to the various classes. The supplementary studies in church policy will begin with those pupils of approximately eight years of age and will be of the simplest and most easily understood policies of the church. Rev. E. S. White is the pastor of the First Methodist Church and is holding a deep interest in his church work. There will be no meetings of the Sunday school teachers on Wednesday evening following the 17th of May, when the members of the church will be present. The Third Quarterly Conference will be held this evening, Rev. J. E. Murray, D. D. presiding, of the Connellville district presiding. It will be a business session with no social.
